

Truly the World's Greatest Dad

I have often been told,
"My dad's better than your dad."
Then let me tell you about my father,
The best one that's ever been had.

He taught me the importance of school,
To learn to read, to write, and to calculate.
Better than that he showed me the bible,
Where I learned of my spiritual fate.

Dad carried me to the ball field,
Supported me as I won the tournament ring.
But on Sunday we would be in church,
Worshiping the almighty King!

He showed me all of the great outdoors,
How to camp, how to fish, and to hunt.
But teaching and warnings he shared with me,
How to defeat the devil on life's battlefield.

My father taught me to be wise,
To be fair, to be just, and to be true.
He said, "Always obey the Almighty God."
And on that Great Day the Heavenly Father will save you.
