

The Gospel of Matthew - Chapter 20

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

- Each worker agreed to be paid a denarius for the day. (v. 1-2)
 - About how much was a denarius worth? _____
 - The landowner went to the marketplace.
 - What were the “idle” people seeking at the marketplace? (v. 3,7)

 - The landowner made several trips to the marketplace throughout the day.
 - What can we assume about the people who were still at the marketplace late in the day?

 - Jesus compares the story of the workers in the vineyard to the “kingdom of ___ E ___ E N” (Matt. 20:1)
 - Why did the early workers become upset with the landowner? (v. 11-12)
-
- Jesus again emphasizes the idea of the first being L ___ T and the last being ___ I R ___ T. (v. 16)

Jesus Predicts His Death a Third Time

- Jesus again ___ R E ___ C ___ S His death and resurrection. (v. 17-19)
 - What is the significance of Jesus repeatedly sharing His prediction with the disciples?
-

A Mother’s Request

- James and John wish to sit on the R ___ H T and ___ F T sides of Jesus’ throne. (v. 20-21)
- The disciples still struggled to grasp the idea of a ___ E ___ V E ___ Y kingdom.
- The other disciples became upset with James and John due to their ___ O ___ R understanding of Jesus’ kingdom.
- The disciples demonstrate their ___ E L F ___ H ambitions. (v. 24-28)
- Jesus teaches that those who ___ E R ___ E will be great. (v. 26)

Two Blind Men Receive Sight

- The two men understand the ___ W E R of Jesus. (v. 29-30)
- Despite their disability, the two men were not ___ R I T U ___ L L Y blind like the Pharisees.