

Five Questions for the Believer – 2 Corinthians 6:14-18

I. Unequally Yoked (v. 14)

1. “Do not be unequally yoked together with _____.”
2. The old saying goes, “You can’t be in a hog wallow with the pigs and not get ___ ___ on yourself.”
3. You can’t claim to belong to Christ while being a _____. (Galatians 2:17)

II. Five Questions (v. 14-16)

4. What ___ LL ___ H ___ has righteousness with lawlessness?
 - a. He who sins is of the _____. (1 John 3:7–8)
5. What communion has light with ___ ___ K ___ ___ ?
 - a. We are not to have fellowship with the unfruitful works of _____, but rather expose them. (Ephesians 5:8–12)
6. What unity has _____ with Belial (wicked people)?
 - a. Every _____ divided against itself cannot stand. (Matthew 12:24–25)
7. What part has a ___ L ___ R with an un___ L ___ R?
 - a. For one to be focused only on the physical things of life will cause spiritual _____. (Romans 8:5–8)
8. What agreement has the ___ P ___ of God with idols?
 - a. “Little children, keep yourselves from _____.” (1 John 5:21)
9. So what would be your answer to the “five questions”? _____

III. You are God’s Temple (v. 16-18)

10. “You are the temple of the _____ God.”
11. We are to glorify (praise) God in our _____ and in our _____, which belong to God. (1 Corinthians 6:19–20)
12. God has promised that He will be a _____ to us. (v. 18)