

Oh, Give Thanks to the Lord! – Psalm 136

I. Goodness (v. 1)

1. “Oh, give thanks to the LORD, for He is _____!”
2. God is _____ (goodness) and in Him is no _____ (evil) at all. (1 John 1:5)
3. We must consider the ___ OO ___ SS and ___ V ___ T ___ of God. (Romans 11:22)

II. The God of gods (v. 2)

4. Oh, give thanks to the _____ of _____!
5. “You shall have no other gods before _____.” (Exodus 20:3)
6. Our God is a consuming _____ and a _____ God. (Deuteronomy 4:24)
7. When the people saw the Lord’s defeat of the prophets of Baal through Elijah, they shouted, “The _____, He is _____!” (1 Kings 18:39)

III. Lord of lords (v. 3)

8. Oh, give thanks to the _____ of _____!
9. Peter preached, “God has made this _____, whom you crucified, both _____ and _____.” (Acts 2:36)
10. Preaching to Cornelius, Peter said, “Jesus Christ—He is Lord of _____.” (Acts 10:36)
11. All people should ___ N ___ SS that Jesus Christ is Lord. (Philippians 2:11)
12. Jesus asked, “Why do you call Me ‘Lord, Lord,’ and _____ the things which I say?” (Luke 6:46)
13. “We ought to obey God rather than _____.” (Acts 5:29)

IV. His Mercy Endures (v. 26)

14. Oh, give thanks to the God of heaven! For His mercy endures _____.
15. According to His mercy God has _____ us. (Titus 3:4–5)
16. God is _____ in His mercy and has a great _____ for us. (Ephesians 2:4–5)
17. Thanks be to God for His ___ D ___ B ___ L ___ gift! (2 Corinthians 9:15)